

FOR MORE THAN 100 YEARS,

the Junior League of Houston has been developing women leaders and serving alongside nonprofit partners throughout Greater Houston. Through 28 community projects and more than 85,000 volunteer hours each year, League members create lasting impact for women, children and families across our city.

What makes the Junior League of Houston unique is the power of partnership. Every underwriting gift is amplified by the leadership, expertise and service of thousands of trained volunteers, extending the reach of every dollar.

The Junior League of Houston warmly invites you to the 79th Annual Charity Ball as we celebrate your commitment to "Building A Better Community."
